

Dear John

- 1) The preview of VB is from May 26 (Thursday) to 27 (Friday), and the opening is May 28 (Saturday). So I ask you to be with us at least for three days. But if you come early when we prepare, it would be better. So let us say from May 25 to May 28. If you can stay only for two days, May 26 and May 27 are the key days.
- 2) I will have another curating meeting this Thursday. Our strategy and plan might be a little bit clearer. So we can skype on Saturday evening (Dec 12) in Korean time (early Saturday morning in Atlanta and London). But I will be more prepared when we talk in Athens.

I may have to present briefly our theme at the meeting in Venice at the presence of Aravena on Wednesday, Dec 16. If Ricky can tip me off before, it may be better to talk to him before I go to Venice.

Anyway, do you think we invite Ricky formally for Korean Pavilion? Do you think he is willing to participate at? Best, Sung.

This is the hotel booked.
