

Dear John,

Thanks for the encouragement. You are the one who guided us so far. I was about to discuss with you how I contact Ricky before the opening. The catalog will be ready in the first week of May but I am not sure I can let him have a copy in his hand in London. Definitely, I can send him an invitation to the opening, but I want to do something before he goes to Venice. Once I get the urgent things done. I will do what I can do. Please help me then. Best, Sung.
