Dear Neville,

I am glad we have same interests in architecture and urbanism of Asian cities. Please call me Sung (成). (My full name in Chinese is 金成洪). As we continue to exchange ideas and research, could I ask you to contribute a 2,000-word essay to our book (catalog), Korean Pavilion, VB 2016? We would like to offer a small fee of 300 USD. About 10 essays by architects, planners, researchers, and scholars from Europe, North America, and Asia will be included in the book. It will be distributed by the publisher, SPACE magazine. We will keep you updated about the content, “Constraints Sparking Creativity: The FAR Game.” The deadline of essay is March 15, 2016. I really hope your comparative views of Asian cities will be reflected our book.

Best, Sung.
